

Radio Ad Copy

"Do you ever wonder why people from around the world decide to make Northeast Saskatchewan their new home? Why people relocate their family across the globe to a new country so different from their own? What immigrants think of the Saskatchewan winter and hockey? And how they adapt to a new lifestyle and language?"

Northeast Newcomer Services in Tisdale is now selling the "In the Comfort of our Food" book featuring the stories of recent immigrants and feel-good dishes from around the world. To order your copy, please call 873-2672. Be prepared to not only learn about other cultures but about your own by seeing it through the eyes of a newcomer!"